

REFOCUS THE FRAME: TURNING THE LENS ON RACISM

A series of powerful screenings followed by facilitated discussion and thoughtful dialogue presented by the Facilitating Racial Equity Collaborative.

Friday
November 15th, 2013

“The Doctrine of Discovery”

Part 2 of STARDREAMERS–The Spirit Water People

5:00 Doors open
5:30 Film starts

Location:

Metropolitan State University
Founders Hall Auditorium
700 E 7th St., Saint Paul, MN

This film will be followed by a discussion with 38plus2 director, Sheldon Wolfchild; Birgil Kills-Straight, Lakota elder; and Steven Newcomb, Shawnee-Lenape author and scholar, and the principal person featured in the documentary.

Pizza and refreshments served

Persons with disabilities who need reasonable accommodation to attend this event, please call Disability Services at 651.793.1540 (Voice) or 651.772.7687 (TTY) prior to the event.

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
Donations welcome

STARDREAMERS–The Spirit Water People is a 3-part documentary created by filmmaker Sheldon Wolfchild. Come join the preview showing of Part 2, “The Doctrine of Discovery,” that focuses on a little-known subject traced back to Christopher Columbus’s so-called “discovery” of the lands now commonly known as “the Americas.” This doctrine remains the Supreme Law of the Land in the U.S. Come learn the role of this ancient doctrine in our laws, our language, the U.S. governmental system, and its negative effects on Indigenous Peoples today.

This free event is being held in conjunction with the 2013 OVERCOMING RACISM CONFERENCE: TRUTH TELLING, November 15-16 at Metro State University, St. Paul, MN.

To learn more about the conference or to register, please visit:

 WWW.OVERCOMINGRACISM.ORG

Co-Sponsors:

