Sunday April 17, 2016
12:30pm - 3pm

Fort Snelling State Park Visitor Center at Bdote,
the meeting of the Mississippi and Minnesota rivers

Directions: From St. Paul exit Hwy 5 at Post Road.
From Minneapolis take the airport exit off Hwy 55 onto Hwy 5 and exit at Post Road. Turn east into Fort Snelling State Park. The Visitor Center is 2-miles from the park entrance, at the end of the road.

Present this flyer for free entry to the park | Coffee will be served

The summit will focus on the serious threat facing Coldwater Springs – a sacred and historic site – and identify steps that must be taken to address those threats.

We will begin with a traditional Dakota water ceremony led by Phylis Redday and Iris. Sharon Lennartson chairwoman of the MMDTC will convene the summit bringing together tribal leaders, water quality experts, legal experts, environmentalists, youth, religious and civic leaders.

Open Inipi and potluck feast to follow at the DuPuis House, 1357 Sibley Memorial Hwy | Mendota Heights, MN 55120. Please bring a towel. Women: please wear a skirt/wrap.
