

EVENT: Minnesota History Taught Through the Lives of Hypolite and Angelique Dupois

From: Sibley Historic Site (friendsoftheshs@gmail.com)

To: friendsoftheshs@gmail.com

Bcc: shar5717@yahoo.com

Date: Saturday, March 25, 2023 at 11:11 AM CDT

Minnesota History Taught Through the Lives of Hypolite and Angelique Dupois

Join us at the Sibley Historic Site on Friday, April 14, 2023, from 6:00 PM - 7:00 PM. Presenting will be author Dan Munson on Hypolite and Angelique Dupois.

This event is for pre-registered guests only and is in-person. Please register at dakotahistory.org/events. The event will be held in the Dupuis House on the corner of Sibley Memorial HWY and D Street. There will be one complimentary drink per person and complimentary food.

Admission:

Non-Member: $20.00

Member: $15.00

The Dupuis House on the Sibley Historic Site is a handsome and interesting structure to students of early Minnesota architecture. The life stories of its original owners and occupants, Hypolite and Angelique Dupuis, are at least as interesting as the building itself and can be used to teach a great deal of early-Minnesota history.

Sibley Historic Site
1357 Sibley Memorial HWY
Mendota, MN 55150
(651) 452 - 1596

