

THE LIFE BENEATH OUR FEET

Symphony of the Soil* Film & Reception

This Earth Day, celebrate one of our most precious resources—soil. Join Urban Oasis, Metropolitan State University, and other local soil and healthy food advocates on April 22.

WHEN: Earth Day 2015
Wednesday, April 22
Doors open at 5:30 PM
Film at 6:30 PM
Reception before and after the film

WHERE: Metropolitan State University Founders Hall
700 Seventh Street East
Saint Paul, MN 55106
See event website for parking information

COST: Free, but please register at www.UrbanOasisMN.org/event

Persons with disabilities who need a reasonable accommodations to attend this event, please contact disability.services@metrostate.edu or call 651-793-1549 prior to the event.

RECEPTION PARTICIPANTS:

URBAN OASIS, EUREKA RECYCLING, GARDENING MATTERS, SHARED GROUND FARMERS' COOPERATIVE, FROGTOWN FARM, FAMILY VALUES FOR LIFE, GROWING WEST SIDE, URBAN ROOTS, TWIN CITIES MOBILE MARKET

View the awe and mystery of soil through the eyes of scientists, farmers, and activists on four continents.

Before and after the film, enjoy complimentary refreshments and mingle with Twin Cities-area thought leaders to discuss what we can do to protect the soil that grows our food and nourishes our bodies.

Thanks to Eureka Recycling the Symphony of the Soil screening will be a zero-waste event—any waste will be recycled or composted into new soil.

URBANOASIS

Healthy Food. Whole Community.

REGISTER TODAY: UrbanOasisMN.org/event